

Social Map Documentation Sheet

Name of location:

Date:

Name of note-taker:

Name of facilitator(s):

Total number of participants:

Number of men:

Number of women:

Method used:

1. What was good?

2. What was difficult?

3. Additional information or special things you noticed or want to point out.

Results

1. How many households are found?

2. Is the number of households growing or shrinking? Explain.

3. What are the social structures and institutions found in the area? Explain.
4. What religious groups are found? Do people of the same religion tend to stay in the same neighborhood? Other important findings related to religion?
5. What ethnic groups are found? Do people of the same ethnic group tend to stay in the same neighborhood? Other important findings related to ethnic groupings?
6. How many female households are found? What relevant information has been given when discussing about female-headed households?
7. What else did you observe or notice?
8. How do you assess the situation? What are your conclusions?